Thank you. I am energized now. Tom is very good. I am going to give him a shout. See where we're at. At least, we now have a response from Jim.

My last post is a it extreme on purpose. Downey has been playing you for years.

I cannot think he is planning to be more responsive after even a reaming out by he mayor and Councillor.

I think he's a vindictive power freak who for years has enjoyed telling you no. He had to execute the contract every two years so he can't claim he forgot five times.

I doubt there will be great support. Carol Cat was most illuminating and I trust her instincts. I like her because she got a lawyer letter too.

They all hind behind them "I don't have to put up with abuse from taxpayers" It has given them the game they play. They say no andvyou can't get upset at the absurdity otherwise they call the lawyer to scare you into shutting up.

God I love being old and cranky. Walter Matthau head it right.

We're no further ahead this week than last. We are behind with no entryway. When they want to talk demand the plan Janet made up paid by the town. Don't back down. You have 240 with you!!

I mean ask for delivery. See what they say. With more green we can go a bit further afield, poopwise. Your call.

I can do that one. I have been meaning to. If you take the broken ones back they replace them. I think we are ok for green bins but I do think we could use a couple extra blue ones.

Helen. The contract also provided for the supply of blue bins and green pills. What do you think about you asking the town to deliver five of each to the corner of the park inside the fence then we can throw out the old broken blue ones in the odd damage green one in at least percent a little bit better appearance.

But it's totally up to you

As always.
